As anticipated, the state Board of Education Tuesday formally agreed to fund 50 percent of the $11 million school building program approved by town meeting last month.

The state will share 50 percent of the principal cost of the bond, including architect's fees, construction costs, and expenses for playing fields and equipment, as well as 20 percent of the interest cost. The 50 percent funding was a condition of approval granted by the annual town meeting.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark and Building Program Coordinator Richard McGrail, representing the school administration, traveled to North Adams Tuesday to hear the state board's decision.

The school building plans for improving the town's secondary schools were accepted with $74 allowed per square foot for each pupil, despite the fact that the Building Committee Chairman Kenneth Gropper explained that the state accepted the higher figure because it will probably be allowed as of July 1, the beginning of fiscal year 1980-81.

"We based all our number projections on the anticipated $74 per square foot figure because we will not go out to bid until well into fiscal year 1980-81," said Gropper, "and the state agreed with our figures."

The school building committee is now supervising architects' design development for the three-part program, scheduled for completion sometime during 1983.

Working with the town manager, the committee is also investigating the possibility of hiring a construction management firm to supervise the project.

Under the building program, Doherty elementary school will be converted into a junior high school to replace East junior high. The Memorial auditorium wing of East will be retained to house gymnasium and auditorium facilities for the new junior high.

In addition, renovations at the high school will include the addition of a new 1250-seat auditorium; and at West Junior High, the addition of a new Instructional Materials Center (library).

Police Pursue Leads, Suspects As Rock Victim Lies Critically Injured

Investigators were following lots of leads and questioning several suspects but had nothing definite as of Wednesday morning in connection with the tragic accident involving a Haverhill school teacher critically injured by a rock thrown from the High Plain Road bridge on to her car.

Louise G. Trahan, 36, 11 Woodrow Ave., Haverhill, was listed in critical but stable condition at Lawrence General hospital Wednesday, almost a week after the accident happened as she was driving home from an open house program at the Shawsheen school, Tewksbury, where she is a teacher.

A 16-pound, four-inch, by eight-inch chunk of granite was dropped from the overpass about 9:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 14, crashing through the windshield on the driver's side as she was proceeding along Route 93 toward the Route 495 interchange. She was able to bring the car to a stop going over an embankment into the interchange area.

As a result of the impact of the stone and glass, Mrs. Trahan lost the sight of one eye, despite long hours of surgery last Thursday and will probably have only 20 per cent vision in the other.

Her face was crushed by the impact of the rock and surgeons worked for many hours in reconstruction, using a picture supplied by the victim's mother, Mrs. Gertrude Davy of Winchester.

She remains in the intensive care unit of Lawrence General and has also been examined on the CAT Scan unit for further injuries at Bon Secours hospital.

A reward fund now exceeds $5,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for tossing the stone. The Trahan family, Wednesday, added $1,000 to the $4,000 already contributed.

Much information has been provided to Andover and State Police who are investigating along with the District Attorney's office.

Det.-Sgt. Robert Parker of the Andover police said Wednesday that all of the leads are being checked out and suspects interrogated.

"It's top priority as far as we're concerned," Parker said Wednesday, adding that state police assistance has been greatly beneficial.

Both departments have been working from early morning to late at night following up the various leads provided by the general public and information gained through talking with people.

Parker said that the investigators, along with the uniformed branch have talked to up to 100 people, including youngsters, as of Wednesday, in an effort to obtain some information which will point them toward the perpetrator of the incident.

Parker said that as time passed, it seemed less likely that the person would turn himself in through qualms of conscience, but remained hopeful that such would happen.

Sgt. Patrick Fay at the Andover state police barracks, concurred with Parker's feelings on the matter and was optimistic that the person or persons responsible would be apprehended.

"We haven't stopped (the investigation) and that's important. As long as we continue, we remain hopeful of bringing the case to a successful conclusion," Sgt. Fay said.

Among troopers working with Sgt. Fay in the investigation are Trooper Stephen Kelly, who was first on the scene last Wednesday night and found the Trahan car

Family Cookout On Monday

Members of the Exchange Club of Andover have completed plans for the annual Family Cookout to be held behind the police box in Elm Square, immediately following the Memorial Day Parade. The public is invited to the cookout; all proceeds will be given to charity. Shown here are Richard Moore of the Andover Savings Bank, at left, and Dennis Buckley of Sign Art in Pepperell, who donated the sign.

Poppies On Sale

"In Flanders Fields The Poppies Blow..." went the immortal words of Col. John McCrae's poem. Little did he realize when he penned those lines that some day the very poppies of which he wrote would be the symbol of those who gave their lives in the nation's wars.

Annually, the Veterans of Foreign Wars sponsors the Buddy Poppy Sale in the Andover area to raise money for needy and disabled veterans. This is their way of "Honoring the dead by helping the living."

The Buddy Poppies will be on sale here May 22 to 24.

Asst. Band Position Approved

The school committee Tuesday night accepted with little ado a job description for an assistant band director.

The committee had earlier passed over the position, claiming it needed more information, while the administration maintained that the music program has expanded considerably, and that one person cannot effectively work with 165 students.

In other personnel action, the committee approved the retirement of George H. Locke, high school custodian who has been with the system for 19 years, and accepted the resignation of Howard Sherman, school adjustment counselor at Andover High. Sherman was a guiding force in the peer counselor program.

The committee also appointed Gay Casey of Andover, a data entry operator in the central office, at a salary of $10,500 for 52 weeks, and Nancy Kullman of Stoneham, accountant in central office, $16,000 for 52 weeks.

Richard Beddoe, school adjustment counselor on a permanent substitute basis since April 28, was given a salary stipend of $900 a year.

Consultants To Advise On Maintenance

School Committeeman Joseph Finn told his colleagues Tuesday night that a joint meeting with representatives of the selectmen and finance committee had resulted in a decision to have some "professional assistance" as they study the possibilities of combining school and town maintenance.

Finn said that once they decide on a consulting firm, that firm will help them find their proper structure to meet maintenance needs. The firm will not, he said, decide what the needs are. That will be up to the school and town departments.

He said the committee, consisting of himself, School Chairman

Elaine Viehmann, Selectman Chairman Jim Abramson, Selectman Susan Poore, and FinCom members Fred Fitzgerald and Ruth Dunbar, would consider four alternatives:

1. To continue maintenance under the existing, separate town and school structures.
2. Revise the existing structures, but maintain separate responsibilities.
3. Combine town and school maintenance into a central function and
4. Opt for something new and "ultra creative."

He said the joint group would be meeting again in two weeks.

Student Advisers Introduced

Pat Canavan, out-going chairman of Andover High's Student Advisory Council, Tuesday night presented new SAC members to the school committee.

They include Tammy Bateson, chairman; Lauren Whitley, secretary; Kevin Canavan, Marybeth Boland and Carol Balin.

Representatives to New England Regional group are Stephanie Monroe and Harris Livingston.

Bicycles To Be Part Of Auction

The annual auction of bicycles held at the police station for the past year, will be a part of the town's recycling auction to be held at Cardinal Cushing gymnasium on May 31.

The bicycles have been stored at the police station as a result of having been found or recovered over the past year.

Any persons feeling their bike may be part of the collection may check at the station prior to the auction to determine if registrations match.

League Annual Meeting

The Andover League of Women Voters will celebrate 60 years of viability as a national organization on May 28 at 6:30 p.m. at Christ Church on Central Street, Andover.

The evening will start with a pot luck supper, followed by a cake-cutting ceremony. Membership Chairman Jean Leuner will present a style show entitled, "The League Reviews Its Year In Fashion."

Next the business of annual meeting will begin, with the passing of the gavel from President Joyce Robinson to President-Elect Virginia Cascino. League members and guests are welcome to attend.

Three Awarded Eagle Rank

Three Scouts were recently honored at an Eagle Court of Honor conducted by Troop 77 Boy Scouts of America Sponsored by West Parish Church of Andover. Receiving the rank of Eagle were John Holmy, Robert Kemp and Paul Rollins.

Holmy has completed the 21 merit badges for the rank of Eagle. Many of these badges show his love for nature such as mammals — forestry — and wilderness survival. John has served many leadership positions while a member of Troop 77 from patrol leader to assistant senior patrol leader.

For his Eagle project, John planned and led nine other scouts in a Conservation Project in the Indian Ridge Reservation where they moved logs, cleared brush, spread wood chips and identified and marked several different types of trees. He is a noted history buff and after college would like to work in international affairs with the United Nations or the State Department. John is an Honors Student and a member of the Order of the Arrow and the Scouting camping honor society.

Kemp has completed 34 merit badges, 13 more than the 21 required for the rank of Eagle. Robert's selection of merit badges shows his wide range of interests having earned merit badges such as engineering — electronics — and salesmanship. He has held seven troop offices including patrol leader, quartermaster, and senior patrol leader. Robert and his brothers were instrumental in getting several scouts together to repair the patrol boxes a couple of years ago. For his Eagle Project, he planned and with the help of eight other scouts built a set of storage cabinets for the church play school. He plans to attend college and major in business management.

Rollins has completed 32 merit badges 11 more than the 21 required for the rank of Eagle. In addition to the nine required merit badges, Paul has earned geology, home repairs and emergency preparedness along with many others. Paul has held several troop offices from patrol leader to senior patrol leader. For his eagle project, he planned and with the help of six other scouts published a "Safety Sense" coloring book which consisted of 35 pictures with safety reminders. These were distributed with the approval of the West Elementary PTA to the first, second and third grades. A safety picture contest was also conducted under Paul's guidance at West Elementary school. Paul is an honors student and is presently interested in electronics and architecture, and plans to go on to college after high school.

The Eagle Court of Honor was conducted by Scoutmaster Richard Shupe with the Rank of Eagle Presentations made by North Essex Council Scout Executive Dwane Powell. The closing ceremony was conducted by old time Scouter Dean Burns.

Choral Parents Meet June 3

The Andover High School Choral Parents Association will meet on June 3, at 7:30 p.m. at the High School. It is important that all parents of students involved in the choir programs attend as plans for the 1980-81 school year will be discussed and nominations and elections of officers and chairmen of various committees will be held. The participation and input from all parents is encouraged.

New Eagle Scouts

MVRTA Says "No" To Fare Increase

The Merrimack Valley Regional Transit Authority's Advisory Board, at its recent meeting, voted to continue the present fares on the commuter rail service to the area, despite plans by the MBTA to increase its fares by 19 percent within the MBTA district.

The sense of the Board was that this was a time to expand the usage of service until the existing trains were full leaving the valley, and not a time to increase revenues by making the individual rider pay more. "The trains will cost us the same amount whether we charge our current fares or higher ones," Randolph Lehman-Becker, Andover's representative noted, "so we can increase revenues by one of two ways: higher fares or more riders. We think that more riders makes more sense not only for us, but also for energy reasons."

At that same meeting, the MVRTA Advisory Board authorized a CETA construction project to provide waiting shelters at the stations along the route, including Andover's Center and Ballardvale stations. These stations will be constructed within the next few months by a crew training under a union master carpenter, providing the participants with "hands on" experience in construction.

The advisory board also completed its search for a new administrator of the authority, with the appointment of Joseph Costanzo of Lawrence. The search, involving candidates from across the country, was initiated at the time that William Schultz, prior administrator, announced his resignation to move to a private company in California, his home state. Costanzo, a Lawrence native, formerly served as a planner with the Merrimack Valley Planning Commission in the area of transportation, before becoming the assistant administrator with the MVRTA. At the MVRTA, Costanzo has been active with Andover in programs such as the Elderly and Handicapped Service (WEEBUS), and planning for bus transit schedule additions.

Costanzo assumed his new position on May 19.

Selectmen Walk 'The Beach' Before Acting On Permit

One neighbor commented that "this is the best beach south of Hampton," as the selectmen and more than 20 residents surveyed the site of the Andover Country Club subdivision Monday night.

The selectmen walked the site to inspect dust conditions there before they consider acting on a special gravel removal permit to the developer, Andover-Cormier, Inc.

At a public hearing for the gravel removal permit last week, neighbors complained to the selectmen that construction on the site is sending clouds of sandy dust over their homes, creating a nuisance and a health hazard.

That hearing will be continued Tuesday night, when the selectmen may reach a decision.

Located off Canterbury street, the section of the 160-acre development now being cleared consists of a massive stretch of sand, sloping up to a steep hill at the back of the site. The hill, topped with trees, borders abutters' property on Lowell street. A large pit, once a pond, sits in the middle of the site.

At least one selectman was not pleased with what he saw Monday night. "This is going to be a mess for years, I'm afraid," said Jerry Silverman, "and there's no solution."

Selectman Susan Poore said the selectmen should order the developer to

"cease and desist" work on the project immediately because she believes he has begun removing more gravel than is currently permissible.

Cormier began clearing the first section of the development last fall. Divided into seven sections, the subdivision will eventually include 272 houses in a cluster development.

The developer is now seeking a gravel removal permit for five sections of the subdivision.

Although a permit from the selectmen is required for the developer to remove more than 2000 cubic yards of earth material, Cormier has begun removing material from the roadways and adjacent areas to comply with Planning Board regulations on grading. Work in the roadways is under the planning board's jurisdiction.

Poore suggested the selectmen order Cormier to cease and desist further work on the development until the town engineer can determine whether the developer is removing material from the roadways only.

However, the selectmen will not consider taking such action until they can obtain a legal opinion, on the possible consequences, said Chairman James Abramson. That opinion should be ready in time for Tuesday night's public hearing, he said.

"You want to stake out the area?" asked Andover-Cormier representative Arthur Fosse of Dana F. Perkins and Associates. "That's no problem — we'll be glad to do it."

Fosse said he had consulted with an expert on soil conservation from the state conservation commission on ways to control the blowing sand, as suggested by an abutter during last week's hearing.

Following the state expert's

Wanted: Family For A Year

Michael Hartl, an 18-year-old boy from Kaprun, Austria, at the foot of a majestic glacier, would like to come to Andover for a year, through the AFS (American Field Service) program.

He will be able to attend Andover High next year, if a host family is found for him within the next couple of weeks.

Hartl is described as sincere, lively and athletic. He likes skiing, hiking, tennis, jogging, basketball and cycling; he likes to listen to records, doesn't smoke or drink, and if there's nothing else going on, he's happy with a good book. He gets along in his studies, particularly if challenged.

A host family basically provides room and board for an AFS student; medical costs, clothing, and travel to and from Andover are provided by the student or by AFS.

Any family interested in having Michael as a son and sibling for a year, should contact Leslie Whitley, Virginia Road, or Roger Wiehe, Salem Street.

Jennifer Bischoff of Andover, Wayne Karrfalt of Methuen, Kari Larson of Boxford, Christer Mattsson of Andover, Ben Porter of Andover and Mark Stemmler of Tewksbury will be confirmed in the Christian Faith.

These youths have completed a two year course of study of Holy Scripture and the Catechism and have been approved for the rite of Confirmation by the pastor of Faith Lutheran Church and the Church Council of that congregation.

All friends and family of these Confirmands are invited to be present for the Confirmation at the 10:30 service.

Brandeis Play Wins Award

"Personals," an award-winning musical written by Brandeis students and recently staged at the John F. Kennedy Center in Washington, will be presented at Brandeis' Spingold Theater Friday, May 23, and Saturday, May 24.

Curtain times will be 9 p.m. on Friday and 2:45 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Saturday.

"Personals was selected as one of the top eight college productions in the country by the American Theatre Association (ATA). It was showcased at the Association's 12th annual festival at the Kennedy Center.

This sophisticated revue is based on the "personals ads," that are included in urban newspapers. The USO has selected the show to tour military bases in Europe this summer.

Merrimack Launches 30th Graduating Class

Basil B. Bantimba

Sunday's drizzle did little to dampen the spirits of the crowd that filled the Volpe Center at Merrimack College, to witness the conferring of degrees upon 479 students during the school's 30th commencement exercises.

One of five to whom honorary degrees were bestowed, had been there all those 30 years: Prof. James J. St. Germain of Andover, now a doctor of social science, and about to retire. St. Germain was also the main speaker, and he likened the launching of the Class of '80 to the launching of a ship at sea, after much preparation and with many challenges ahead.

Like St. Germain, John A. Parrotta of Andover got a standing ovation from his class, after his valedictory address. Parrotta urged his classmates to accept the responsibility for their own lives "as individuals, as members of society, as inhabitants of the earth."

Parrotta earned a double degree: he graduated summa cum laude in biology and cum laude in chemistry, and also received the Very Rev. Mortimer A. Sullivan, O.S.A., Medal and cash prize as the first ranking student in the Division of Science and Engineering.

WESTern Roundup

By Tricia Gannon

Tonight, May 22, the Faculty and Student Government of West Junior High School will sponsor its 12th Annual WESTern Barg-B-Que and Educational Roundup in conjunction with the school's annual Open House Program. This year the program theme will be "Westy Awards at 50's Celebration."

The Student Council Officers have once again arranged to have their famous Barbequed Chicken Dinner served in the courtyard of the school by Nason Catering Services. Plans call for the dinner to be served continuously from 5 to 7:30 p.m. with two lines being setup to speed service. Last year over 1000 people were fed during the evening.

The Educational Roundup will feature various examples of students work displayed throughout the school building. Everyone is invited to tour the building before or after dinner to see firsthand the achievements of the students. There will be a number of surprises during the evening. Highlights of the Roundup will include numerous art works, industrial arts projects, and homemaking displays of the students. All departments will have special features relating to the "Westy Awards at 50's Celebration." A physical education exhibition will be presented during the evening in the school gymnasium.

The climax of the evening will be the presentation of the Annual Musical Club's Concert in the school Auditorium. With several hundred students participating, the program will include both vocal and instrumental selections of the 1950's.

For the past few weeks, ninth grade classes with Social Studies teachers Bruce Dewire, Jack Kennedy and George Sullivan have visited Boston on field trips. Stops included on this trip were the State House, Faneuil Hall, and Quincy Market.

and Mary Hurley of the eighth grade.

Throughout this most enjoyable evening music was provided by the East Junior High Band and the girls choral group, the G-Clefs, accompanied by Mr. Thomas Button and Mr. Gary Shapiro of the East faculty.

Co-directors of the entire evening's events were Miss Kathleen Mohan and Mr. Kenneth Pellerin.

At Brooks

On Tuesday, May 22, the Brooks School Choir will present a concert of Sacred Music in the Brooks School Chapel, 1160 Great Pond Road, North Andover.

Andover High Notebook

By Renee Pruneau

Last week will remain forever etched in most seniors' minds as the longest they will ever have to endure. Not only is the prom Friday night but those seniors receiving early release are also getting out tomorrow. That is over fifty percent of the senior class. The remaining students will be released on May 29.

On May 28 seniors are invited to a senior awards dinner at the Sheraton Rolling Green. Parents and other relatives are invited. Yearbooks will be distributed at this time.

Graduation is planned for 5 p.m. on June 4 at the Eugene V. Lovely Field. Again, all are invited.

It looks as if seniors will have a busy three weeks. Parties, proms, awards, graduation, and more parties: a fitting reward for the trauma and heartaches experienced earlier this spring when college acceptances and rejections went out.

Developmental Program Explained

Parents of pre-school and elementary age children are invited to attend an information gathering featuring Linnea Gershenberg, early childhood specialist for Andover Public Schools.

The Andover League of Women Voters is sponsoring this event tonight at 7:45 p.m., in the Print Room of Memorial Hall Library.

Gershenberg is one of the developers of the developmental primary program, which is presently implemented on a limited basis. The program offers a creative and exciting educational opportunity for young children.

The public is invited to learn "everything you always wanted to know about developmental primary . . . but never had the opportunity to ask."

Newhall Photographs On Exhibit

The Addison Gallery of American Art at Phillips Academy is presenting the photographs of Beaumont Newhall through June 15.

This exhibition is a sequel to the earlier collaboration with Newhall, who introduced his unprecedented "History of Photography" show organized for the Museum of Modern Art in the Spring of 1937, and subsequently exhibited that Fall at the Addison.

Newhall is regarded as the pre-eminent photographic historian of the time. His career includes the posts of librarian of the Museum of Modern Art from 1935 to 1942, and curator of photography from 1940 to 1945. He was the first curator of the International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House, 1948 to 1958, and was director from 1958 to 1971.

Newhall the photographer, however, is little known to the public. Making photographs since his graduation from Phillips Academy in 1926, he has rarely exhibited in the past because of the difficulties confronting the curator who shows his own work. Thus this first exhibition of his photographs to be held in the East is both instructive and celebratory. His images reflect many of the important traditions of photography and reveal his intimate perceptions of the major photographers. He is a practitioner in both black-and-white color. His work is a cohesive body of personal and imaginative photographic statements.

Gallery hours are Tuesday to Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sundays from 2:30 to 5 p.m. The Gallery is open free to the public.

Newhall will give a lecture tomorrow at the Kemper Auditorium, adjacent to the Addison Gallery, at 7 p.m., followed by a reception at the Addison Gallery from 8 to 9 p.m. The public is cordially invited.

Free Concerts

There are free concerts Thursdays at noon, at the Bush Reisinger Museum, 29 Kirkland St., Cambridge.

Springfield Armory

The Springfield Armory National Historic Site, Armory Square, is open free, 8 to 4:30 daily. Exhibits include extensive gun collection, early weaponry, factory authorized by the Continental Congress. Children under 18 must be accompanied by an adult.

Academy Performs Haydn Mass

Tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the Cochran Chapel, the Music Department of Phillips Academy will present the Concert Choir and Academy Chamber Orchestra in a performance of Haydn's Lord Nelson Mass.

Guest soloists will include Beda Polanco, soprano; Nancy Green, alto; Kenneth Raynor, tenor; and Santo Cataudella, baritone. Ann Cummings, PA '80 will sing a soprano solo in the "Kyrie."

The original title of this work is Missa In Anxietate (Mass in time of fear). However, a few months before its first performance at the Bergkirche in Eisenstadt to celebrate the Name Day of the Princess Esterhazy, Lord Nelson defeated Napoleon at the Battle of the Nile. The Mass came to be known appropriately as the Lord Nelson Mass.

Polanco is a graduate of the Conservatory of Puerto Rico and received her masters degree in music from Boston Conservatory. She has performed extensively throughout New England and the Caribbean, where she is originally from. Before joining the Music Department at the Academy as a voice teacher, she worked for The Festival Casals and was leading soprano with the Puertorrican Opera and Zarzuela Company. She performs regularly with the Opera Company of Boston.

Green received her bachelor of music degree from Southern Methodist University and her master of music degree from the New England Conservatory. Currently a voice teacher in Cambridge, she has had several roles with the Boston Children's Opera and the Boston Lyric Opera. She performs regularly with the Opera Company of Boston.

Raynor studied privately with Eleanor Steber in New York City. He has appeared with the Opera Company of Boston, the Providence Opera Theater, the New York Grand Opera, the Worcester Symphony Orchestra and the Saint Paul Opera Company. With the Colonial Band of Boston, he has recorded a series of Early American pieces. Under the auspices of the Department of Defense, Raynor has toured the Far East entertaining U. S. Armed Forces.

Cataudella is by profession an oral surgeon. As a student at Holy Cross College, he was organist, baritone soloist and piano accompanist for the Glee Club. He has sung with the Handel and Haydn Society and has appeared as soloist in performances of the Haydn Mass for St. Cecilia, the Mahler Symphony No. 8, Orff's Carmina Burana, and the Mozart Requiem and Mass in C Minor. He is a member of the Chorus pro Musica and has been a regular soloist since joining the group in 1968.

Friday's performance will be conducted by William Thomas, chairman of the Phillips Academy Music Department.

There is no charge for admission and the public is invited to attend.

On Sailing, Travel, Etc.

With interest building for the return of the Tall Ships next week, Memorial Hall Library has on display an exhibit of sailing books and ship models by Harry Jenkins. The 350th birthday of the founding of Boston will be celebrated throughout the summer. The Library will continue to highlight special cultural events planned for the occasion.

If travelling to Boston is a bit tame, stop in the Library to see the new travel books which are currently on display. They will be invaluable as you plan your summer or fall vacations. Some of the more unusual or exotic locations included are the Canary Island, Singapore, Tunisia, Corfu, Rhodes and Dubrovnik.

Paintings Of Ferenc Hamori

The watercolor paintings of the late Ferenc Hamori are on display at Memorial Hall Library through the month of June. Painting began as a hobby for Dr. Hamori who was a chemical engineer by profession. His work is generally in the impressionistic manner a la Matisse and Cezanne.

A native of Hungary, Dr. Hamori studied in Budapest and Munich, and settled in North Andover in 1958. While here he painted many landscapes of the area. One picture, of North Andover Center and the North Parish Church, was chosen for a UNICEF greeting card in 1970.

Dr. Hamori's work has been widely exhibited from Vienna to New York to the Addison Gallery. Arrangements for this show have been made by his son, Andras Hamori of North Andover.

Beginnings Of Mayan Civilization Found

Crucial archaeological data concerning the origin of Mayan civilization, starting before 10,000 years ago, have just been discovered in Belize, Central America, by the explorations of the Robert S. Peabody Foundation for Archaeology at Phillips Academy.

According to Dr. Richard S. MacNeish of the National Academy of Sciences (NAS) and director of the expedition, there has been discovered in survey, that still continues, over 60 pre-ceramic sites, a kind totally unfound during the previous 150 years of research in this Central American lowland jungle region. Preliminary analysis suggests these belong to five ancient culture complexes in the period from 4500 to 11,000 years ago, which led to the remarkable Maya civilization with its ceramics, pyramids, calendar and agriculture.

These preliminary findings are the basis for a skeletal framework of cultural development that should revolutionize ideas concerning how, why, and when the Maya developed their pristine lowland civilization, and these should have bearing on why and how any ancient pristine lowland civilization arose.

Lowell Park Opens New Summer Tours

The Lowell National Historical Park and the Lowell Historic Preservation Commission, in conjunction with the Lowell Heritage State Park, will inaugurate the Park's new trolley and summer tours Saturday, May 24 at 1 p.m. at the Mack Building, 25 Shattuck St., Lowell.

Festivities for the opening day will include a brass band, old fashioned bunting, speakers and special exhibits. The entire festival celebrates Lowell's past, present, and future through music, speeches and by creating a street fair atmosphere.

As part of the activities, the Lowell Heritage State Park's new headquarters at the Mack Building will feature architectural models of Lowell. The display represents changes proposed for the Downtown Lowell area. The models will be provided by the Chamber of Commerce, the City of Lowell, the Lowell Heritage State Park and the Lowell National Historical Park.

For further information on the celebration, please contact Lowell National Historical Park, 171 Merrimack St., Lowell.

Plans are now underway to thoroughly investigate these tentative findings, as well as study their implications. A series of seasons with an interdisciplinary approach for which Peabody is famous, are aged, and scientists from a variety of fields and universities will be cooperating.

The present expedition sponsored, while led by Dr. MacNeish, the foremost authority on the origins of New World / agriculture, included Dr. S. Jeffrey K. Wilkerson of the Peabody Foundation in charge of fieldwork, and Prof. Antoinette Nelken-Terner of the National Center of Scientific Research (CNRS) of France undertaking the archaeological analysis, as well as students from the United States, Mexico and Belize formerly British Honduras. They worked under a permit from and in cooperation with the Belizean government and its commissioner of archaeology, Harriot Topsey. Aid and advice was also received from Dr. Norman Hammond of Rutgers University and his group working at Cuello on a National Geographic Society sponsored expedition; Dr. Paul Healy of Trent University, Canada; and from the Colha Project of the University of Texas at San Antonio under the director, Dr. Thomas Hester, and Dr. Harry Shafer of Texas A&M.

At present, the Peabody group is awaiting the results of radiocarbon (C14) determinations from Isotopes, Inc. which they hope will confirm and supplement their tentative dating of their long, newly-discovered archaeological sequence.

This evolutionary sequence appears to begin with evidence of an early South American-related group of hunters of perhaps horse and giant sloth, dating roughly from 7500 to 9000 B.C. These inland grassland hunters, named Lowe-ha at the end of the Ice Age, developed into a second culture complex, Sand Hill. They were still mainly oriented to hunting, but were doing plant collecting and beginning extensive woodworking, probably including the making of watercraft. After about 5500 B.C. a third culture seems to have developed which is characterized by stone tools for processing plant seeds. Preliminary survey on the distribution of sites suggest that this Belize complex had a scheduled subsistence system with inland hunting and collecting in the wet season, and exploitation of the protein-rich resources on the coast during the other dry season.

The use of aquatic resources increased during the following Melinda period, roughly from 4200 to 3300 B.C. These sites indicate that in this period sedentary life had begun on the coast or in various estuary locations.

Tentative evidence tends to suggest increasing populations with riverine adaptations leading to sedentary villages with agriculture from about 3300 to 2500 B.C. in the Progreso period. It is believed that this complex is the base on which Maya civilization was built.

This hypothetical developmental sequence is of considerable variance with previously held ideas of Mayanist and other theorists, including Marxist ones, who have speculated about the rise of civilization. On a theoretical level it has startling new implications that should revolutionize older concepts, but more important should initiate important new researches in this important ancient center of civilization.

Mrs. Dye Is Named Fulbright Fellow

By Linda S. Corbett

Pat Dye was easing down off "Cloud 9" this week, growing accustomed to her upcoming trip to China, and getting down to the business of learning enough Chinese "to ask the basic questions."

The Andover High teacher thought winners of Fulbright Fellowships were to be notified early in April, so she had about given up hope when her letter arrived last week.

She'll leave Seattle July 7, along with a dozen other high school and college teachers of world history, for a three-week seminar followed by travel in China.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert told the school committee of the honor Tuesday night, and noted that "all too infrequently people who pay their dues are recognized."

He described Mrs. Dye as the sort of person who is "unassuming, yet effective. She doesn't go in for the TV spectacles, but she slowly and deliberately moves in on social studies and a commitment to the kids."

He said she "eats, sleeps and breathes world events," and that he couldn't think of a more deserving person.

He added that Fulbrights aren't very easy to come by.

"They're very particular," he said of the selection committee, "but Pat Dye's a very particular person."

A history major in college, she had worked for the government, but hadn't taught school until she went back to Salem State a few years ago to get her masters in Asian history. Now in her 11th year in Andover, she taught at East Jr. High for eight years before moving to Andover High three years ago.

She teaches world civilization and Great Decisions, a Foreign Policy Association course that focuses on the eight most current topics of the State Department. This year, China was one of those topics.

Mrs. Dye first heard about the Fulbright opportunity through a professional organization, and wrote for more information. She had to list three choices of places to go, "and I wanted to put down China, China, China." Among the questions asked during the battery of interviews that followed were how her family felt about the possibility, and what she would do if taken hostage.

She says that as a recipient, she has been warned that the experience will be "mentally and physically demanding" and that she will have to be able to accept "some inconveniences."

She says she hopes to bring back some Chinese art and, of course, things that can be used in school next year. Already on the schedule is a new course in East Asia.

Holding down the home front on Smithshire Estates while she's gone, will be her husband Thomas, and Chip, 15, who is about to graduate from West Jr. High, as well as Susan, 20; Tom, 26 and Marti, 24.

She says her family thinks it's very exciting, and is offering her their shopping lists as well as such advice as "don't get lost" and "don't break a leg" (she broke a foot over April vacation).

By Linda S. Corbett

The "traditional" school calendar remains secure, at least for another year.

The school committee Tuesday night opted for Plan A, which conforms to the calendar model of recent years, but also voted to establish a sub-committee to study the possibilities of major changes for the future, with energy conservation in mind.

School will begin next fall on Thursday, Sept. 4, and close Wednesday, June 24, 1981, or earlier if none of the four built-in snow days is needed.

Christmas vacation will begin at the end of the day on Tuesday, Dec. 23, with school reopening Monday, Jan. 5.

Both February and April vacations remain in tact: the February break will be one week (Feb. 16 to 20) and the April vacation a week (April 20-24) plus Good Friday, April 17.

The calendar provides for three-day weekends over the Columbus Day (Monday, Oct. 13) and Memorial Day (Monday, May 25) holidays, with one-day observances for Veterans Day, Tuesday, Nov. 11, and Martin Luther King Day, Thursday, Jan. 15.

An in-service day is currently scheduled for Monday, March 23, but the administration was given the option of shuffling that day around if otherwise beneficial.

Since the high school gym was made the central polling place, in-service day has coincided with the town election in March, to ease traffic congestion and parking woes.

However, Nancy Mulvey of 104 High Plain Road reminded the committee that there will be three elections during the next school year: the Presidential, a state primary and the town election.

The Presidential in November, she said, traditionally draws 60 percent of the registered voters, whereas "we're lucky to get 30 percent" for a town election.

Despite publicity on possible major changes in the school calendar — such as lengthening of the school day, extension of Christmas vacation, and school on Saturday mornings — only a couple of residents turned up Tuesday night for the hearing on the matter.

Harriet Ahouse, 175 High Plain Road, said there were two major questions to resolve before making major changes:

"Is the purpose to save energy for the community at large or to save tax dollars in the schools?" she asked.

She said she felt that closing school during colder weather would result in more energy being consumed at home, as youngsters turn up the thermostats, turn on radios and TV, and open and close the refrigerator door. She said older youths might also get in their cars and use more gasoline.

Secondly, she asked how the quality of education would be affected by longer or more vacations. She said the school climate is very unsettled, for instance, the week before the Christmas break, and that it always takes a while to get back into the swing once school starts up again.

She said she had ruled out extending school into the summer, because of the capital outlay of outfitting schools with air conditioning. Furthermore, she said, youngsters use the summer months to earn money, and a shorter vacation would cut into their pay.

Parade, Exercises Mark Memorial Day

Robert Lange, master gunnery sergeant, U.S. Marine Corps, will be the guest speaker at Andover's traditional Memorial Day exercises at Memorial Auditorium Monday morning.

The principal exercises will be preceded by a parade which will step off at Florence street at 9:30 a.m. There will also be special services at Veterans lots in the town's cemeteries conducted by Andover veterans organization and the Patriotic Holiday Committee.

Marshalls for the parade will be Commander Patrick Flynn of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2128, Commander Clarence Johnson, American Legion Post 8 and John J. Lewis, director of veterans services.

From Florence street, the parade will go over Elm Street to Elm Square to Main street to Chestnut street, to Whittier Street to Memorial Auditorium.

Included in the line of march will be police and fire department personnel, town officials, a U.S. Army marching unit, VFW and Legion members, and their auxiliaries, Andover Lodge of Elks, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Andover Company of Militia, clergymen and dignitaries.

Commander Flynn of the VFW will be master of ceremonies at the services at the auditorium, with Rev. David T. Melvin of South church, giving the opening prayer. Selectman Gerald Silverman will deliver the eulogy and Miss Jennifer Baun, representing the Girl Scouts, will recite, "Flanders Field." Following a hymn by the Andover High school choir, Robbie Veilleux, representing the Boy Scouts, will recite Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Following the address by Sgt. Lange, wreaths will be placed by Anita Jerackas and Virginia Flynn of the VFW Ladies Auxiliary. Rev. Richard L. Foley, OSA, of St. Augustine's parish will give the benediction, and the program will close with the firing of volley by the combined firing squads and the playing of taps and echo by Robert McKinley and Mark Hadad.

The parade will then reassemble and proceed from Bartlett Street to Wheeler Avenue, down Main Street to Park Street and disband at Park and Bartlett streets.

The services at the cemeteries will precede the parade with prayer, eulogy, and placing of floral tributes at each grave. Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2128 will conduct the services at West Parish cemetery at 7 a.m. and at St. Augustine's cemetery at 7:30 a.m. American Legion

Deplorable Action

Andover obtained some notoriety this week.

But, it's not the type we're proud of, nor is it something we want to see repeated.

A motorist, Louise G. Trahan of Haverhill, lies critically injured at Lawrence General Hospital as a result of injuries sustained when a large chunk of granite went through her windshield from the High Plain Road overpass of Route I-93.

Investigators, at midweek, have indicated they have some leads, and we hope police are able to apprehend whoever was responsible.

But, that won't return Mrs. Trahan's eye, nor will it assist in improvement of vision in the remaining eye which is threatened. And, it won't ease the mounting hospital and medical bills which will be faced by the Trahan family, although a fund has been established to assist.

That the incident has aroused concern is apparent by the donations to fund a reward for apprehension of those who committed the act, and we are hopeful that this will prove an incentive to anyone having pertinent information.

There are two particularly important matters which command attention — installation of a protective fence and attentiveness to what, for want of a better word, we'll call sickos.

As for the fence, the High Plain Road overpass is one of only a few that lack such as protective barrier. Moves are underway by local legislators to get the state to remedy this with the installation of those arched-type chain link fences which would prevent a repeat of such activity.

We wonder why it has taken so long and even more importantly why a tragic accident took place last week had to bring attention to the problem.

Rock throwing from overpasses is not something new. Missiles of varying sizes and types have been being tossed from the High Plain road bridge and others where the fences are not in place. Police, from time to time, have been called to disperse youngsters from the overpasses.

A large rock was tossed off one of Andover's bridges several years ago, hitting a car, but not causing injury. In Methuen, waterbags were tossed over and a motorist fatally injured a few years ago.

It seems imperative that faced with the type of modern society we deal with, that all overpasses on major highways should be equipped with the protective barriers. Even with such fences, some will attempt to throw stones or other material over the inward arch and onto the highway. Such actions have been seen and reported.

While the state may consider that some bridges don't need such work, based on low population and lack of pedestrian traffic, the expense of being on the safe side, far outweighs the cost of even a single incident such as occurred this past week.

Rock throwing is not confined to bridges alone. We have heard of incidents of rocks being thrown at passing cars in parts of the community, including Elm Square. Such activity is not the work of frivolous youngsters, but people of an age who know the difference between right and wrong.

As for the Route 93 incident, there are suggestions that the person or persons responsible could have been high on drugs, drunk, or had reached a sick mentality.

If that is the case, it is folly to think that the perpetrator would have the conscience to admit to the incident and turn himself in.

There is little doubt the problem is a serious one.

We would hope that investigators are successful in bringing the case to a successful conclusion through apprehension of those responsible.

And, we hope that remedial action will follow on all bridges in order that the law-abiding society can be protected from those of weakened or demented minds.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — May 1905

The Andover Athletic Association baseball team will open their season tomorrow afternoon at the Playstead when they will play the Bluestockings of North Andover.

Charles Pearce is suffering from a bad wound in the hand after being cut with a circular saw while working for F. H. Foster on Monday afternoon. He was cutting wood at the time and his hand got caught in the saw. It is considered miraculous that his hand was not severed.

A number of residents of Brook Street have presented a petition to the board of selectmen requesting that the board authorize the concreting of the south sidewalk on Brook street. This is certainly an urgent need as in wet weather the travelling there is very poor and many people have occasion to traverse that walk.

It is understood that Mr. Gleason is to delay action in regard to a notice served upon the Cricket and Football Association to vacate his premises within ten days. This is good news, but it is conditional on the rectifying of certain abuses to which the field and particularly the clubhouse have been put of late.

50 Years Ago — May 1930

More than 250 boys and girls took part in Guild play night held last Friday evening in the Town Hall under the direction of Miss Margaret Davis, superintendent. The exhibition gave a very good idea to the spectators (who were unfortunately few in number) of the way the young people have spent many of their spare hours during the winter.

Two juveniles charged with breaking, entering, and larceny at the central schools were found guilty and given a suspended sentence of two months to Concord Reformatory, when they appeared in court in Lawrence on Thursday morning.

In honor of the Tercentenary, Memorial Hall Library has on exhibition its oldest treasures. As one enters the Reading Room, the two bulletin boards show a map of Andover in 1830, with the name of its inhabitant lettered beside each house; views of the town on old postcards depicting a square unfamiliar to the present generation and in interesting broadside related to the Abbot monument erected in the South Church Cemetery in 1843.

25 Years Ago — May 1955

The Planning Board has retained an engineer and a planning consultant to begin master plan studies for the town. The work will cost approximately $5500. Engineer Clinton F. Goodwin of Haverhill was hired by the board; the planning consultant is Nord W. Davis of Shirley center.

Four Pynchard High School students have received national recognition for their art work. Barbara Carbonetti, Beverly Becotte, Daniel Hurley and Thomas Lawler were among those who had pictures selected by an impartial jury for exhibition throughout Europe and the Far East.

The seven prints selected by library users for framing have been returned from the New York Graphic Society and will go into circulation on Wednesday afternoon, June 1, at 5 o'clock. Andover exceeded its blood quota when the Red Cross bloodmobile was here, according to Frank W. Lilley, chairman of the local blood program. Andover's quota was 300 pints but 378 persons donated.

10 Years Ago — May 1970

Bancroft Elementary School brings highest credit to its architect, William Warner of Providence, R. I., and to the Andover community by winning the nation's highest professional recognition for architectural excellence — a coveted American Institute of Architect's Honor Award.

Shawsheen residents were assured by the selectmen that any request presented them by the Bryant-McIntosh College for use of the former Parker House would be made public and they would be kept informed.

Despite concerted efforts of the Andover Village Improvement Society members to have tax-title land bordering the Shawsheen River given to the Conservation Commission, the selectmen stood pat on the original action of holding onto the land themselves.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Carter and Kennedy:
Will They Reconcile?By JACK ANDERSON and JOE SPEAR

WASHINGTON -- President Jimmy Carter is convinced that he has the Democratic nomination sewn up. But Sen. Ted Kennedy believes he can still break the Democratic convention wide open.

It would take impressive victories in the California and New Jersey primaries next month before Kennedy could claim that the momentum is swinging away from Carter, that Carter's economic failures are catching up with him.

This could lead to a move to release all delegates from their commitments and let them choose a nominee who would make the best Democratic contender. The delegates could then take into consideration any late change in the national mood.

This scenario already has the support of some Democratic leaders, including New York's Gov. Hugh Carey and Sen. Daniel Moynihan. But it is still a long shot. The odds certainly favor a Carter nomination.

The president, however, is worried that the Kennedy campaign could undermine his support with Democratic voting groups whose support he must have to win re-election. So he is anxious to heal the rupture with Kennedy.

Intermediaries have already approached Kennedy. They have indicated that Carter is willing to work with Kennedy on a compromise party platform. They have also argued that Kennedy can't afford to split the party, that he must support the ticket if he has any hope of winning the nomination for himself four years from now.

Our sources expect an eventual reconciliation between Carter and Kennedy. There's only one problem: They have an intense personal dislike for one another.

COVETOUS CASTRO: There is a disturbing story behind the recent Cuban attack upon a Bahamian patrol boat. The gunboat had rounded up two illegal Cuban fishing boats in Bahamian waters. Suddenly, a Cuban fighter plane attacked and sank the patrol boat.

Our intelligence sources say the two captured boats possibly were part of a secret espionage operation, which the Cubans couldn't risk having discovered.

At least this much is certain: Fidel Castro is trying to take over the entire Caribbean. He conducts regular intelligence operations and paramilitary maneuvers in the area. He has sent security advisers to the neighboring islands of Jamaica and Grenada. He also supports underground movements throughout the Caribbean.

In fact, Castro has become so ambitious that it has upset the Soviets. A secret intelligence report prepared by the State Department's Bureau of Intelligence and Research cites "Soviet misgivings about placing too much reliance on ... movements whose activities may create complications for the U.S.S.R.'s global policies." According to the report, this includes nearly every political movement Castro has supported.

The report adds that Castro "considers the Soviet Third World strategy to be ineffective because it is too inflexible and dogmatic."

So Castro has struck out on his own in the Caribbean. The report calls him a maverick whose lust for leadership of the Third World has caused him to go much farther than the Soviets would like.

The secret report states that Castro "brings to his mission an almost messianic zeal."

U.S. intelligence agencies, meanwhile, are worried that some Castro spies may be among the thousands of Cuban refugees who are flowing into the United States. Once they legally pass through immigration checkpoints, the government is powerless to keep track of them.

The more Cuban refugees allowed into the country, the greater the chances that some of them will be working for Castro or the Soviet Union. FBI and CIA officials have already identified

1,100 Soviet and Cuban agents in the United States.

'PONDGATE' SCANDAL: The great scandal of the 1970s was the break-in at the headquarters of the Democratic Party. The scandal took on the name of the building where the burglary occurred -- Watergate. There may be a similar affair brewing for the 1980s; insiders are already calling it "Pondgate." The name refers to the pondside cottage in Plains, Ga., where President Carter's mother, Lillian, lives. Two weeks ago the house was burglarized. Miss Lillian's private papers were rifled. The sheriff of Plains hasn't identified any suspects yet. However, our inside sources say the thieves made off with about $30 to $40 in change, which the president's mother keeps handy for poker games.

DESERVING CHARITY: If you feel like donating some hard-earned cash to charity, consider the U.S. Treasury. Today the national debt is at an all-time high -- $887 billion. The annual interest on the debt works out to more than $79 billion. It also costs the government nearly $200 million a year to keep the Bureau of the Public Debt operating. And just what does the Bureau of the Public Debt do? It keeps track of how much money the government owes, of course.

By She Livermore

The Flames, an Under 19 Girls team, held a strong Lynn team to a one-goal win with outstanding defense and superior goal tending (the overworked goalie blocked at least thirty shots!). Elsewhere, the Braves with no substitutes on hand exchanged goals with an excellent Merrimac line-up, kicking in the extra one to win a 5-4 victory for Andover.

There will be no games played during Memorial Day Weekend. Brief results of games played last weekend follow below:

Under 10 Division

Raiders 2, Riddlers 1

The Raiders made many attempts to score in the first quarter, succeeding on one occasion (David Stark). The Riddlers tied it up in the third quarter when Scott
Livermore scored on a lengthy free kick!
Both teams worked hard for the winning

WESTern Sports Roundup

By Tricia Gannon

The ninth grade baseball team, coached by Steve Tisbert, is well into their season after completing six games. The team played Chelmsford-McCarthy Wednesday, April 30, but lost by a score of 4-0. On Friday, May 2, they lost to Chelmsford-Parker, 9-8. Dave Tiberii, Matt Wells, and Eddie McEvoy did exceptionally well. The team tied Dracut Monday, May 5, with a score of 6-6. Scott Noonon, Steve Guschoy, Jeff Demers, and Matt Wells were the star players in this game. On Wednesday, May 7, they (again) tied Tewksbury, 7-7. The team was losing 7-0, but with the outstanding work of Scott Noonon, Andy Emmert, Ron Lindquist, Chris Coots, and Ricky Desmaris, the boys came back to tie in the last inning. The team won, 5-3, over Methuen last Monday, May 12. Ricky Desmaris did a great job pitching the entire game, while Scott Noonon, Eddie McEvoy, Billy Noyes, Jeff Demers, and Chris Coots added to this success. The team's next game is today at Lawrence.

The eighth and ninth grade softball team, coached by Dave Gangi and Bill Fleischmann, lost to Tewksbury Friday, May 2, by a score of 18-10. The team did very well, however, in their game Monday against Billerica. With superb work from Linda Weiner, Mary Oppel, and Laura Foley, they won by a score of 10-9. On Wednesday, May 7, the girls won again by a score of 12-11. In this game, against Chelmsford-McCarthy, Linda Weiner, Chris Powell, and Co-Captain Chris Kubacki did especially well. On Monday, May 12, the team lost to Dracut while Anne Maher, Wendy Prugh, and Co-Captain Connie Corkery all played a fantastic game. The team's next game will be at Chelmsford-Parker tomorrow.

The Girl's Track Team, coached by Miss K. Kennedy, beat Chelmsford-Parker in a meet Wednesday, April 30, by a score of 75-25. On Tuesday, May 6, the team lost, 54-46, to Tewksbury. It was, however, a very exciting day for West. A record of some of the events is below.

Tight Games Highlight Week In National League

The fourth week of Little League baseball featured some good, tight ball games. Both the Cardinals and the Mets escaped the week with two victories. The two victories by the Cardinals strengthened their hold on first place.

Standings

Cardinals	5-1
Mets	3-3
Cubs	3-3
Braves	3-4
Dodgers	2-3
Giants	2-5

Cardinals 6, Dodgers 2

The Cardinals played their best game of the young season, finally pushing across four runs in the fifth inning, to defeat the Dodgers 6-2.

Ted Cormier and Scott Deery split the pitching for the Cards. Deery, Matt McMannus, and Rob Carpentier were the big bats for the Cards.

Mike Dimeo and Mark Needham had the hits for the Dodgers. Needham also made a leaping catch of a screaming liner in the sixth inning.

Cubs 3, Pirates 2

The Cubs bested the Pirates 3-2 in an exciting, well-played contest. The game was highlighted by superb pitching, excellent defense, and timely hitting.

The Cubs put forth their best effort in route to victory. Rob Hendry and Rob Nelson combined to limit the Pirates to just three hits, striking out nine.

Chris Hansberry and Nelson delivered the key singles for the Cubs. Sparkling defensive plays were turned by Pat Fleming, Andy ZMcMannus, and Nelson.

Peter Sandler started for the Pirates and was relieved by Rob Ditroia. Robby pitched three strong innings of stellar relief, striking out 8 of 10 batters he faced, while yeilding just 1 hit.

The Pirates rallied in the fifth, but came up a bit short, as a sensational catch deprived the Pirates of a come from behind victory. The Pirate fifth was sparked by Ellen LeMaitre's single to right, and James Marocco's second out walk. Both runners advanced on a passed ball before being chased home on John Nusso's Single.

Bob Ditroia was then robbed of a would-be extra base hit, which was hauled in by Eric Goodman at the fence, ending the Pirate rally.

Mighty might David Schwind made a key catch in leftfield for the Pirates.

Mets 7, Giants 6

Jack Sweeney and George Liss limited the Giants to just five hits to allow the Mets to sneak by 7-6.

Scott Wilkins and Mike Powers enjoyed big games at the plate for the Mets, going three for three. Wilkins had three extra base hits. Chris Bartley and Sandy McNeish also had big hits for the Mets, while Jimmy Keating and Allan Sillars made nice running catches in the field.

John Marocco was the big stick for the Giants with a towering double. Dave Weymouth, Craig Wilson, and Chris Colsia chipped in with singles.

Brandon McCue and Fran Ferrara both made a good showing on the mound for the Giants. Dave Wade cut down a runner at the plate, while Matt Sandborn also turned in an outstanding defensive play with a fine running catch.

Cardinals 12, Braves 9

Matt McMannus, Matt Rubenstein, and John Gangi were the big bats for the Cards in a high scoring contest with the Braves.

John Twomey and Jeff Penner split the pitching chores for the Braves, while Joanthan Yezerksi and David Sullivan had the lone Brave hits. Bobby Boshar, Greg Long, and Steve Mencis kept the game close with super defensive plays for the Braves.

Craig Barry and Matt Rubeinstein sparked the Cards' defense.

Mets 5, Dodgers 4

The Mets' Chris Barry went the route holding off the Dodgers 5-4. Barry gave up four hits while striking out eight in his complete game performance.

The Mets struck for first blood in the first inning with Scott Wilkins, Sandy McNeish, and George Liss coming up with run scoring singles. Wilkins then drove in 2 runs with a double in the fourth, after the bases were loaded on a walk, single, and error.

A wild last inning allowed the Dodgers to explode for four runs to put the game within reach, but centerfielder Allan Sillars' one-handed stab of a sinking line drive saved the Mets from defeat.

Braves 7, Giants 5

Timely hitting by the Braves in the third and fourth inning enabled the Braves to best the Giants 7-5.

Joanthan Yezerksi and Tim Plaehn pitched well for the Braves, while Jeff McNeil, Jeff Pender, and David Sullivan led the Brave attack with two hits apiece.

Matt Aumais, ignited a four run third inning with a perfectly laid down bunt single. Dana Lally, Chris DiClemente, and John Twomey made strong defensive plays for the Braves.

goal and when Andrew Hannah assaulted the nets in the final quarter, his team won the points. ESB: Goalie Brent Gracia, Jason Garland and Eugene Park (Raiders) as well as Goalie Frank Padellaro, Tom Lawn and Jonathon Merenda (Riddlers).

Rockets 2, Rebels 0

The Rockets made many attempts to score throughout the play and goalie David Hobbs made some great saves for the Rebels. The forwards were not to be denied, however, and the Rockets did score two goals (Chris Eggert and Stephen Napolitano) to win the victory points. ESB: Brian Reagan, James Hendry and Jason Weiner (Rockets) as well as Josh Malitsky, Bobby Hughes and Tommy Tormey (Rebels).

Rustlers 1, Rays 0

In an evenly matched game both teams worked hard to get the ball out of midfield into the goal zones, looking for the goal which would give them the lead. The Rustlers succeeded in the second quarter when George Willard scored on a lengthy high shot. There were no more successful assaults on the nets and the Rustlers won the points. ESB: Red McCann and Jonathan Penny (Rustlers) as well as Toby Frothingham, Eric Guzowski and Douglas Bruk (Rays).

Razors 2, Racers 1

The Razors made many attempts to score in the first quarter but excellent goal tending by Robert Franz denied them all. They did boot in two goals in the second quarter (Eric Green and Tim Plaehn with a beautiful high shot over the goalies head). The spirited Racers played an aggressive third quarter and did score one goal (Kevin Foley on a pass from Ames Prentiss) but were still one down at the final whistle. ESB: Allen Boucher, Chris Lowe (Racers) as well as David Bakulski and Glenn Driscoll (Razors).

Rifles 2, Rulers 1

Two Rifles took the lead in the third quarter when Jamie O'Hara scored two goals. The Rulers worked hard in the final quarter to get the ball into the nets, succeeding on one occasion (Mike Biondo on a pass from Paul VanDerWielen) but were still down one at the final whistle. ESB: Craig Buscema, Denny Palmer and J. B. Burgess (Rulers) as well as Michael Faraci, David Orrick and Taylor Ongaro (Rifles).

Gliders 2, Growlers 0

With less than a full compliment on hand, the Growlers were challenged by the Gliders who kept up the pressure throughout the play. They scored in the first and final quarters (Debbie Williams) and denied the overworked Growlers any good shots on their nets, thereby winning the points. ESB: Stephenie Schulz and Kerry Fitzpatrick (Gliders) as well as Krissie Carothers (Growlers).

Gamblers 3, Gadflies 2

In a game that could have gone either way, the Gamblers won the victory points when they scored the extra goal. All three Gamblers' goals were booted into the nets by Kirsten Beigel, one on a pass from Sarah Leary; Kim Anderson scored twice for the Gadflies. ESB: Nancy Abramson and Allison Gully (Gamblers) as well as Sharon Hastings, and Teri Babine (Gadflies).

Ghosts 4, Grits 0

The Ghosts controlled much of the play in the first three quarters, during which they booted in four goals (Tahisa Paul (2), one on a pass from Lee Dziadosz, Cathy Ziegenbein, and Kerin Gangi on a pass from Maryellen Torrisi). The Grits played an aggressive final quarter and assuaged the nets on numerous occasions, however, goalie Heather Blair blocked every shot, retaining the points for her team. ESB: Michelle Meli and Katie Karp (Ghosts).

Grits 1, Growlers 0

Much of the action took place in the midfield with both teams working hard to get the ball into the goal zones. The Grits made many good shots on the nets in the second quarter but Tammy Hughes guarded them with a great deal of class! The Grits did score in the final quarter (Hallie Keene) and they won the points.

Gunners 1, Graphics 0

The Gunners booted in the ball in the first quarter to take the lead (Maya Emshwiller). Both teams worked hard to get the ball into the nets throughout the rest of the play, but alert defensive tactics thwarted all attempts, and the Gunners won the points with a one goal victory.

Under 12 Division

Daggers 1, Daredevils 1

The Daggers scored in the first quarter with less than a full compliment of players (Dennis Sampson on a pass from Tom DeLeire); the Daredevils tied it up in the third quarter when Shannon McCabe booted in the ball on a pass from Stephen DuMosch. Both teams worked hard to add to their score, unsuccessfully, and they both split the points. ESB: Stephen DuMosch and Shannon McCabe (Daredevils) as well as Robby Foley, Chris O'Neil, Chris Sapuppo and Andy Lascher (Daggers).

DieHards 1, Dodgers 1

Both teams scored a goal apiece in the first quarter (Scott Wilkins for the DieHards on a pass from Kyle McCabe, and Jimmy Saalfrank for the Dodgers). The next three quarters remained scoreless and when the whistle blew, the result was a tie game and both team split the points. In their game last week with the Dusters, the DieHards goals were booted in by Kyule McCabe on a pass from Geoff Bolan, and Scott Wilkins. ESB: Jim Astbury and Geoff Bolan (DieHards) as well as Derek Brucato, Jim Saalfrank and Gary Zeigler (Dodgers).

Defenders 4, Dusters 2

The windy conditions prevailing had some effect on the score which was tied up early in the final quarter, both teams having scored two goals apiece (David Bartle and Ken Young for the Dusters, and Steve Redgate and Matt Murphy for the Defenders on a great pass from Bill Shepherd.) The Defenders increased their lead by two in the same quarter (John Perry penalty shot and Matt Murphy off a corner kick by Steve Redgate) and they won the points. ESB: Eddie Anuff and Ken Parker (Defenders) as well as Larry Aiello, Paul Desruisseau and David Dilling (Dusters).

Dynamos 3, Darts 1

The Dynamos played strong in the first half with the wind blowing in their favor and booted in three goals (Chris DiClemente on a pass from Jamie O'Brien on a pass from Chris DiClemente off an excellent corner kick by Cort Pomeroy, and John Adams on a pass from Bill Andrews). The Darts could only muster one in the final quarter (Malcolm Galvin) and the Dynamos won the points. ESB: Bob Moody and Ed Meagher (Darts) as well as Rich Tesman, Erik Poore and Mike Corkery (Dynamos).

Diggers 5, Dealers 4

In a game that could have gone either way, the Diggers won the points when they scored the extra goal in the final quarter. Scoring for the Diggers were Mike Hardock on a pass from Jon Pedicino, Jon Pedicino (2), and Barry Tucker (2). The Dealers goals were booted in by Mark Neaves on passes from Henning Ohlenbusch, Jimmy Tanin and Bryan Poisson.

The Dealers only had ten players on hand, all of whom turned in a creditable performance. ESB: Patrick Burns, Mark Peters, Matt Hampl and Billy Bruno (Diggers) as well as the entire Dealers line-up.

Finishers 2, Flares 0

The game remained scoreless until the closing minutes of a hard fought contest when the Finishers booted in two quick goals (Beth Ostrowski and Elizabeth Pastor on a pass from Stephen Brody) to win the points! The Flares did make some good attempts to score throughout the play, all denied by the excellent goal tending of Kris Buchanan. ESB: Stephen Brody and Deanna Bardetti (Finishers) as well as Cheryl Giammusso, Ann James and Susan Hamilton (Flares).

Flexers 2, Fantastic 0

The Fantastic controlled much of the play but could never get the ball into the nets. The Flexers on the other hand succeeded on two occasions in the second and final quarter (Anne Marie Kannam on a pass from Candice Pitts and Katie Sheehan), and they won the victory points. ESB: Jahna Malitski and Judy Petty (Flexers) as well as Barbara Schwarz, Karin Mesler and Rachelle Brandt (Fantastics).

Fanatics 2, Federals 2

In a game which was called at the end of the third quarter due to heavy rain, both teams split the points when they each scored two goals apiece. Karer Pike did a great job in goal and also scored the first goal for the Fanatics on a pass from Gretchen Suchoolski; Kelly Ross made it two on a pass from Angela Bobba. Caroline Pool scored both goals for the Federals. ESB: Lisa Metcalf, Maura Dunn and Ellen Searway (Fanatics) as well as Tracy Costello and Sharon Worcester (Federals).

Under 14 Division

Andover Clashers 1

Danvers 5

The Clashers travelled to Danvers and were challenged by a strong team who kept up the pressure throughout the play. Alert goal tending in the first half held them to one goal, but they were determined to increase their lead and did so by four more in the second half. The Clashers did make some great attempts to score but the Danvers goalie guarded his nets extremely well. ESB: Ray Leith and Art McCur.

Andover Commanders 5 North Andover Hawks 0

The Commanders having tasted victory last week, added to their points with a big win over North Andover on Saturday. They dominated much of the play and booted in a total of five goals (Sandy MacNeish (2), Paul Fuchs (2), one on a pass from John Todt, and John Stammer) whilst denying the competition any successful shots on their nets. ESB: John Todt and Dwight O'Hara.

Selectmen, Manager Examine Their Goals

On Saturday morning, May 31, the selectmen and town manager will sit down in the town hall conference room to produce a set of goals they would like to accomplish during the coming fiscal year.

Their efforts will, they hope, result in improved communication among all town officials, and enable them to set priorities on the myriad of projects facing the town.

Explains Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, the board will "define the overall results we want to achieve, and then define the programs and activities that will be needed to accomplish those objectives."

The selectmen will consider not just their own objectives, but ideas contributed by the town's 27 boards, commissions and committees, and 11 operating departments as well. By working together, they will try to make Andover's government "more accountable and more productive," says Clark.

A set of clearly-defined goals should help "create greater order" in the running of the town, says Clark. "The goal-setting process can give some meaningful direction to the actions of the town, so that we are not just constantly reacting to problems."

Clark believes that working with a list of one-year objectives will help town officials in several ways: "First, we will be able to step back and evaluate our working relationship each year," he explains.

"Secondly, it will force the selectmen and manager to try and define what the town will do, and what it won't do. As important as what new additional things we will do," he emphasizes, "is what we won't do. The community does not have unlimited resources to solve every problem whenever it comes up."

Goal-setting can also help the selectmen and town manager "place some of the political problems of the community into perspective," adds Clark, by requiring them to look at "all of our problems, and not just special issues."

Because all members of the town's "official family" are participating in the goal-setting process, they should develop a better understanding of what each is working on, says Clark.

"One complaint I hear most frequently from department heads and committees is that they are not familiar with all the events and activities in which the town is involved," he explains. "Things occur that an individual may be concerned with, but by the time they find out about it, it's too late for them to influence it or do anything about it." He cites the Historical Commission's interest in the Ballardvale community center as one recent example.

The town is currently faced with four years' and at least $10 million worth of projects in various stages of completion or planning, estimates Clark. By setting goals, the selectmen will decide which of those projects will be given highest priority, he says.

On the long list of projects the town manager names are additions to the library, reuse of the two wings of East junior high that will not be used for the new junior high, a storm drain system, Elm square redesign, wetlands mapping, anti-vandalism and crime prevention programs, a solid waste disposal system, and a revised master plan for the town.

Clark notes, however, that the town will not undertake any major projects until the $11 million school building program is complete. "We simply do not have the resources," he explains.

The process of setting goals began nearly three months ago when Clark and selectmen Norma Gammon and Susan Poore attended a training seminar in goal-setting which used Lexington as a model.

The selectmen have each developed individual lists of objectives for the year; these five lists, along with the town manager's list, will be compiled into one.

The consolidated list will then be circulated among all town departments, boards, commissions and committees, so that everyone involved in town government may add his ideas and objectives.

The selectmen and town manager will use this information to help them set goals, and assign priorities on May 31.

"The town has been pretty well run for years without this sophisticated management technique," comments Clark. "The question now is how this bite of the apple can make the town operate more efficiently and effectively."

behind the fine pitching of Sebastian Tine and Eric Frank. The White Sox attack was led by Greg Najjar who had a double with the bases loaded and 3 RBIs for the day. After a shaky start, Tom DeLeire pitched well for the Yankees and Dave Moson finished up.

Red Sox 9, Twins 4

By limiting the Twins to two well-sapped singles, David Dilling and Gerry Nassif easily hurled the Red Sox to victory. It was their second consecutive brilliant pitching effort. Doug Rotondi with a single, double, and three RBIs paced the Sox hitting attack. He was complemented in the hitting department by run-producing doubles off the bats of Mike DelTrecco and Mike Melia. Despite the fine pitching and hitting, it was the outstanding defensive play and base-running of Billy Dutton that cemented the victory for the Sox. Heseltine and Radulski garnered the lone Twin hits while Sapuppo shone in the field.

Indians 11, Orioles 2

The Indians scored early and often to down the Orioles, lashing out 11 hits including 3 hits apiece by Bobby Pothier and Paul Sheedy. One of Pothier's hits was a double, while Sheedy smashed out a triple. For the Orioles Concemi had a double and a single, Paskowsky 2 singles, and Gallant and Gilmartin 2 singles each. Matthew Pothier had one RBI and his first major league hit. Defensively, Kevin Henderson was outstanding for the Orioles, while John Morrow and Jay DuHadway were outstanding for the Indians.

Tigers 13, Twins 5

The Tigers pounded out 15 hits including 7 doubles and 2 triples in downing the Twins. Scott Wallace and Ray Rourke limited the Twins to 6 hits with Wallace picking up the win, his first of the year. Tiger Sluggers were Mark Doherty with a double and triple, Scott Wallace with 2 doubles, Shane Smith with a triple, and Eric Neyman, Kevin Rourke, John Moossa and Jim Sullivan with doubles.

Draft Horse

A draft horse is useful for 15 to 20 years, about twice the service time of a tractor. Work horses do not skin bark from trees or tear up roots or compact the soil, according to Massachusetts Audubon. They can work in areas where it is unsafe for tractors.

Historic Events, Bazaar Days To Coincide

Plans are progressing for the Andover Center Merchants Annual Sidewalk Bazaar June 20-21.

With little more than one month to go, several non-profit organizations have already registered to participate by setting up booths along main street with food concession, arts and crafts, snow cones, etc. The Bazaar highlights consumer values for the shoppers along with the Langill Amusements as a pace-setter.

The Constitution Train will be in Andover on Saturday, June 21, and with a short march to Town Hall with the Andover Militia, bazaar-goers can witness a special ceremony and an historical skit by members of the Andover Historical Society.

Charity Road Race Sunday

Dave McGilvray and Bob Hall, who recently ran and wheeled their way from Florida to Fenway Park, will join hundreds of runners on May 25 for a roadrace to benefit local charities.

The Second Annual Run for Charity is sponsored by the Exchange Club of Lawrence. All proceeds will benefit the local cerebral palsy clinic and other local charities.

Alfred Pappalardo, an organizer of the race, said he expects over 500 runners to compete. Last year's race attracted 336, he said.

The race will cover 6.2 miles. It will start in the Lawrence Industrial Park and loop along Glenn Street to Shepard Street and then out of the park on Andover Street.

At the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational School, the course will turn onto North Street and proceed along Chandler and Beacon streets.

The course will turn onto Glenn Street, and back into the industrial park. The race will finish at the Lawrence Elks Field.

A old-fashioned family cookout for runners, their families, and friends will be held behind the Elks Hall after the race, which is scheduled to start at 10:30 a.m. Music will also be provided.

Fifty-three silver bowls will be awarded in the following categories: first 10 men; first 10 women; first three in age categories including 19 and under, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50 and over; wheelchair division.

T-shirts will be presented to the first 500 pre-registrants.

All entries will close at 10 a.m. on May 25, the day of the race.

Entry blanks are available from Run For Charity, Box 487, Methuen, Mass. 01844.

Orienteering

Orienteering, sometimes called "the thinking sport," returns to the North Shore this Sunday, May 25, when the New England Orienteering Club (NEOC) hosts a meet in the Boxford State Forest.

Often compared to a road rally on foot, oreinteering involves the use of a map and compass to navigate through the woods in search of a series of red and white markers called "controls."

To reach the meet, take Rt 495 to Rt 114. Head south for 6.1 miles and turn left just before the "Eastern Tank" sign.

Make Way For Ducklings

A special walking tour for children 5 and older, sponsored by the Historic Neighborhoods Foundation, 71 Commercial St., Boston, Saturdays through June 28, at 10 a.m. Tickets are $2.50 and include swanboat ride. Adults must be accompanied by children.

Outdoor Concert At Academy

This Sunday, May 25, at 3 p.m., in front of Samuel Phillips Hall on the Phillips Academy campus, a free outdoor band concert will be presented. Students from the Reading and North Andover high schools, together with students from Walnut Hill School in Natick, will join the Phillips Academy Concert Band, directed by Richard Wilson.

The program features both classical and popular works for band, including Holst's "First Suite in Eb for Military Band", Charles Ives' "Variations on America", Grainger's "Irish Tune", Persichetti's "Serenade", "Persuasion" by Sammy Nestico (for solo alto saxophone and band), Gershwin's "Strike up the Band", selections from "South Pacific", Morton Gould's "Pavanne", and more.

The public is invited to attend. Bring your own chair or blanket. (In case of rain the concert will be given, indoors in Cochran Chapel.)

Calendar

On the other hand, she said that closing school earlier in the spring would allow them to work longer, while the schools could be shut down entirely. During winter months, she said, most schools would have to be heated to a minimum temperature, to keep pipes from freezing.

She recommended a "very close audit of the schools" over the next year.

A letter from Jim Redman of the Andover Education Association reported that the most teachers (40 of 103) who responded to the options presented by the administration two weeks ago, were interested in Calendar G, which lengthened each school day by seven and a half minutes, and provided a longer Christmas break (Dec. 19 to Jan. 5) and four-day weekends over Veterans Day and Martin Luther King Days.

On the other end of the poll, no teachers favored Option C, which provided for Saturday morning classes in September, October, November and May.

School Committee member Joseph Finn said that support for the traditional calendar was "just about unanimous" among the people he has talked to in the past two weeks. He said most felt the small savings were not worth the disruption major changes would make, but that if big savings could be effected, they might go along with substantial change.

He said some were more interested in seeing the calendar contracted that expanded.

"Everyone wants school to get out earlier in June," Chairman Elaine Viehmann added, "but I want to keep February and April vacations."

Committee member John Eaton was the lone vote against the calendar, because he said he felt that Plan G, adding a few minutes at the beginning or end of the day, was still viable.

Memorial Day

Post 8 will conduct the services at Spring Grove cemetery at the American Legion monument at 8 a.m. and at the G.A.R. monument at 8:20 a.m.

The Andover Patriotic Holiday Committee cordially invites all Gold Star Parents who would like to participate in the Memorial Day Parade to call John J. Lewis at 475-1705 so that he can arrange for their transportation.

The committee invites all veterans to march in the parade on Monday.

This invitation is also extended to all servicemen who are on active duty with the Armed Forces, who may be in Andover on the morning of the parade.

Suggest Stowe Be Stowed For History

The Stowe School, scheduled for demolition to make way for tennis courts at Doherty when that school becomes a junior high, will not be torn down after all, the town manager said Monday.

The state Historical Commission has informed Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark that the Stowe school should be saved because it is listed on the Massachusetts Historical Register, explained Clark.

Clark said he has committed the town to studying possible reuses of the building. The town's only alternative would have been to conduct an environmental impact study, which would have delayed the building program by six months and thus added to the cost of that program, Clark added.

The chairman of the school building committee does not believe that the change in plans for Stowe will effect the Doherty conversion project. "I do not anticipate that this will turn out to be a problem for the building program," said Chairman Kenneth Gronner Wednesday. Gronner added that "at this point it seems highly unlikely" that the school will be used by the school department.

Stowe and the neighboring Jackson school are now used as school administration offices. The Jackson school is still slated for demolition.

Parker at the Andover police, 475-0390 or Sgt. Fay at the state police, 475-3800.

The reward fund was initiated by the troopers at the Andover barracks, and added to by the Lawrence Eagle-Tribune with a contribution of $2,000. The Andover board of selectmen Monday night added another $500 to the other donations sent in by the general public.

The High Plain Road overpass is one of the few bridges in the Andover area which does not have an inward-arched, chain link fence installed by the state to keep such incidents from happening.

Since the accident, efforts have been initiated by State Sens. William X. Wall and Sharon Pollard to have fences installed not only on the High Plain Road overpass, but others as well.

There have been several instances of rock throwing from the particular overpass, as well as some others on either Route 93 or 495 in Andover over the years. A young man was fatally injured a few years ago when his car was struck by waterbags thrown off an overpass on Route 93 in Salem, N.H.

The reward fund, being handled by the Lawrence Eagle-Tribune, has received the following donations:

John Kelly, 26 First St., Taunton, $100; Deborah Maggeo, 3 Hidden Pond Road, Andover, $100; Anthony Lopez, state police major, $100; Capt. Michael Fitzgibbons, no address, $100; M.J. Barclay, 10 Moody St., North Andover, $500; Andrew Pierce, 29 Juniper Ave., $25; Walter Hilse, 4 Beacon St., Lawrence, $100; Sam Zappala, 55 Wood Lane, North Andover, $25; Andover state troopers, $100; anonymous donor, $100.

Audi 5000 vs Mercedes 280E.

Give an inch, save a bundle.

Actually, Audi 5000 is 1 1/2" shorter overall. But when it comes to trunk size, Mercedes 280E loses by a margin of two good size suitcases. In the Audi, cut velour upholstery is standard. It's extra in the Mercedes. Both cars are about equal in head, shoulder and leg room. But only Audi gives you front wheel drive for extra directional control, plus power-assisted rack and pinion steering.

Not bad.

Particularly when you can own the Audi 5000 for less than half the cost of Mercedes 280E. Come in and compare. You'll like the Audi difference.

Carole is #1
in Andover

Carole Clement, broker with Berge's of Andover, has stacked up an impressive record that any sales person would be proud of. In just the first 4½ months of 1980, Carole listed and sold $700,000 worth of real estate. That makes her #1 in our office. What's also noteworthy is that Carole started working in real estate only last July. She's still a rookie!

Known for her boundless energy, Carole has been very active for many years as a volunteer with hearing impaired children. She's a member of the MA Parents Association of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, a fund raiser for the Ripley School for Hearing Impaired Children in Concord, and also a member of the Andover Advisory Council, Chapter 766.

Carole, her husband, Jack, and their four children live at 3 Parnassus Place, Andover.

GREAT OPPORTUNITY

It has been stated that real estate will be one of the great glamour industries during the remainder of the twentieth century. But so will the computer industry. The difference is that the small investor can share in the great profits to be made in real estate. To be personally convinced, consider these vital factors.

Other investments (such as stocks) show broad price fluctuations, but real estate prices have gone steadily upward.

Other investments require large amounts of ready cash, but leverage and pyramiding enable the real estate investor to control large holdings by using a small amount of his own money and much larger amounts of other people's money.

Real estate, through its incredible tax benefits, allows you to keep more of what you earn through depreciation allowances, capital gains, tax rates, refinancing, tax sheltering, etc.

And, finally, real estate has real value in that it increases faster in times of inflation and descends slower in times of recession. Thus it protects its owner against both inflation and recession.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 PUNCHARD AVE., ANDOVER. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Shawsheen Plans Celebration

On Saturday, June 14, 1980 at 10 a.m., 60 years of history will be celebrated in Shawsheen Village. Townspeople and public officials will gather together at Shawsheen Square on the "Bowling Green," located at the corner of North Main Street and Haverhill Street, to commemorate the development of present day Shawsheen Village and its placement on the ZNational Register of Historic Places as a National Historic District.

The Friends of Shawsheen Neighborhood Association, with the cooperation and support of the town and local businesses, will commemorate these two significant events with a public ceremony at the square at 10 a.m. and with a buffet/dance to be held at the Andover Country Club that evening at 8 p.m. Shawsheen Villagers and their neighbors in town are invited to join together for both events.

The morning ceremony will take place at the "Bowling Green." It will be a public dedication of a plaque to celebrate both the 60 year history of Shawsheen and its recognition as a National Historic District. The ceremony will include a short narration of Shawsheen's significance and the efforts of many townspeople to obtain official recognition of its historic importance. It is anticipated that federal, state and local officials will join in the ceremony. Appropriate musical pieces will be performed including a recently rediscovered 1923 ballad titled "Beautiful Shawsheen". The Andover Militia, quartered at the Bowling Green, will participate as well.

At 8 p.m. on June 14, the Friends of Shawsheen are sponsoring a buffet dinner and dance at the Andover Country Club. Anyone wishing to join the festivities that evening should contact the Association's treasurer, Mrs. Carol Abdo, 6 Argyle Street.

The committee hopes that former residents of the Village and townsmen who once danced in the Crystal Ballroom and who remember the activities at the Balmoral Spa will join in the festivities that day.

June 14, 1980 will be the day for Andover to celebrate its first historic district. It is the culmination of four years of work by Shawsheen Villagers to achieve national recognition. For additional information, contact Phil Salamone, 9 Carisbrooke Street.

suggestions, the developer plans to remove the polyethylene from a snow fence at the top of the hill, said Fosse. The plastic barrier serves only to drive the sand over the fence and onto abutter's property, he explained.

In addition, land not currently being developed will be graded to a two-to-one slope, rather than terraced, said Fosse. It will then be covered with straw and plastic netting, or with wood chips.

"We intend to cover what we're not working on as we move along," said Fosse, "and control the dust problem in the areas we are working on. We want you to know that we are trying to cooperate," he added.

However, some abutters remained skeptical that those solutions would be adequate; several groaned when Fosse said the first section would not be loomed and seeded until August 1981.

"How long will these people have to live with this?" Silverman asked Fosse. "You know this dust will spread."

A written report on soil conservation techniques suggested by the state expert will be sent to the selectmen for next week's hearing, said Fosse.
